and Sarah Holm.

HI!

... I'm a little detective. I represent the Annual Staff. The Staff and I have been watching and investigating events and people at CHS all year. We got the real "lowdown."

CHESTERTON HIGH SCHOOL

Let Me Clue You In . . .

SCHOOL LIFE 6-23

The long talks in the hall ways, the classroom discussions, student elections, and the turnabout dances are all part of our school life which develop individual personalities.

ORGANIZATIONS 24-55

An extracurricular program gave us an opportunity to make friends among both faculty and student body—to pursue individual interests and hobbies.

SPORTS 56-73

The undying school spirit of CHS pupils has contributed in a big way to the development of sportsmanship and building of character.

PEOPLE 74-131

Six hours a day, five days a week, one hundred and eighty days a year, CHS hums with the activity of the administration, faculty, and students.

ADVERTISEMENTS 132-158

The merchants helped clear up the mystery of where the money would come to publish the yearbook.

SCHOOL LIFE

The laughs, the parties, the studying, and the rush after the last bell; these are the things we will remember.

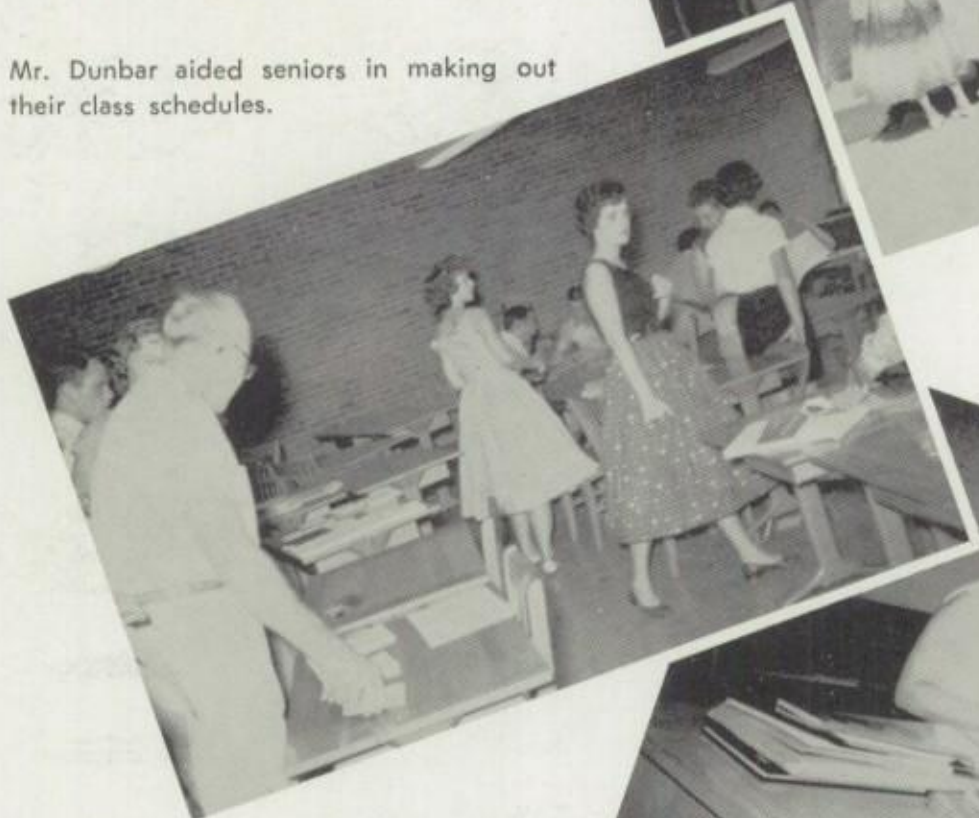

"A typical school life scene" was portrayed by the faculty in the Booster's Club Minstrel.

SCHOOL LIFE SNAPS

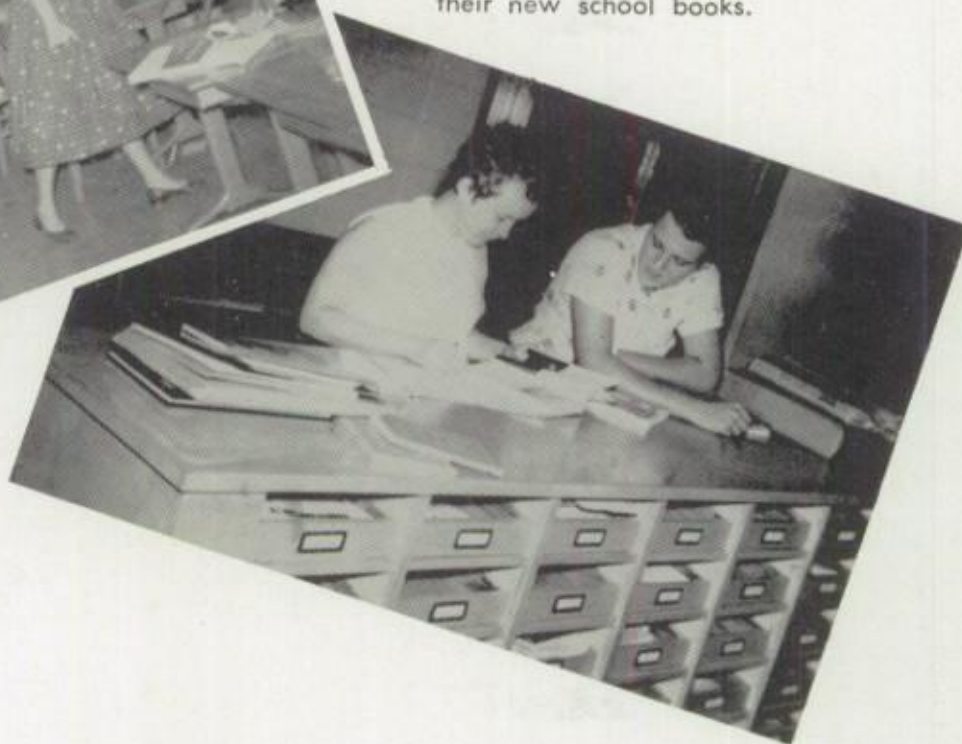

Soft summer breezes—but when that last bell rings, they'll be late.

Mr. Dunbar aided seniors in making out their class schedules.

Sandy Stemp and Bob Gilbertson inspect their new school books.

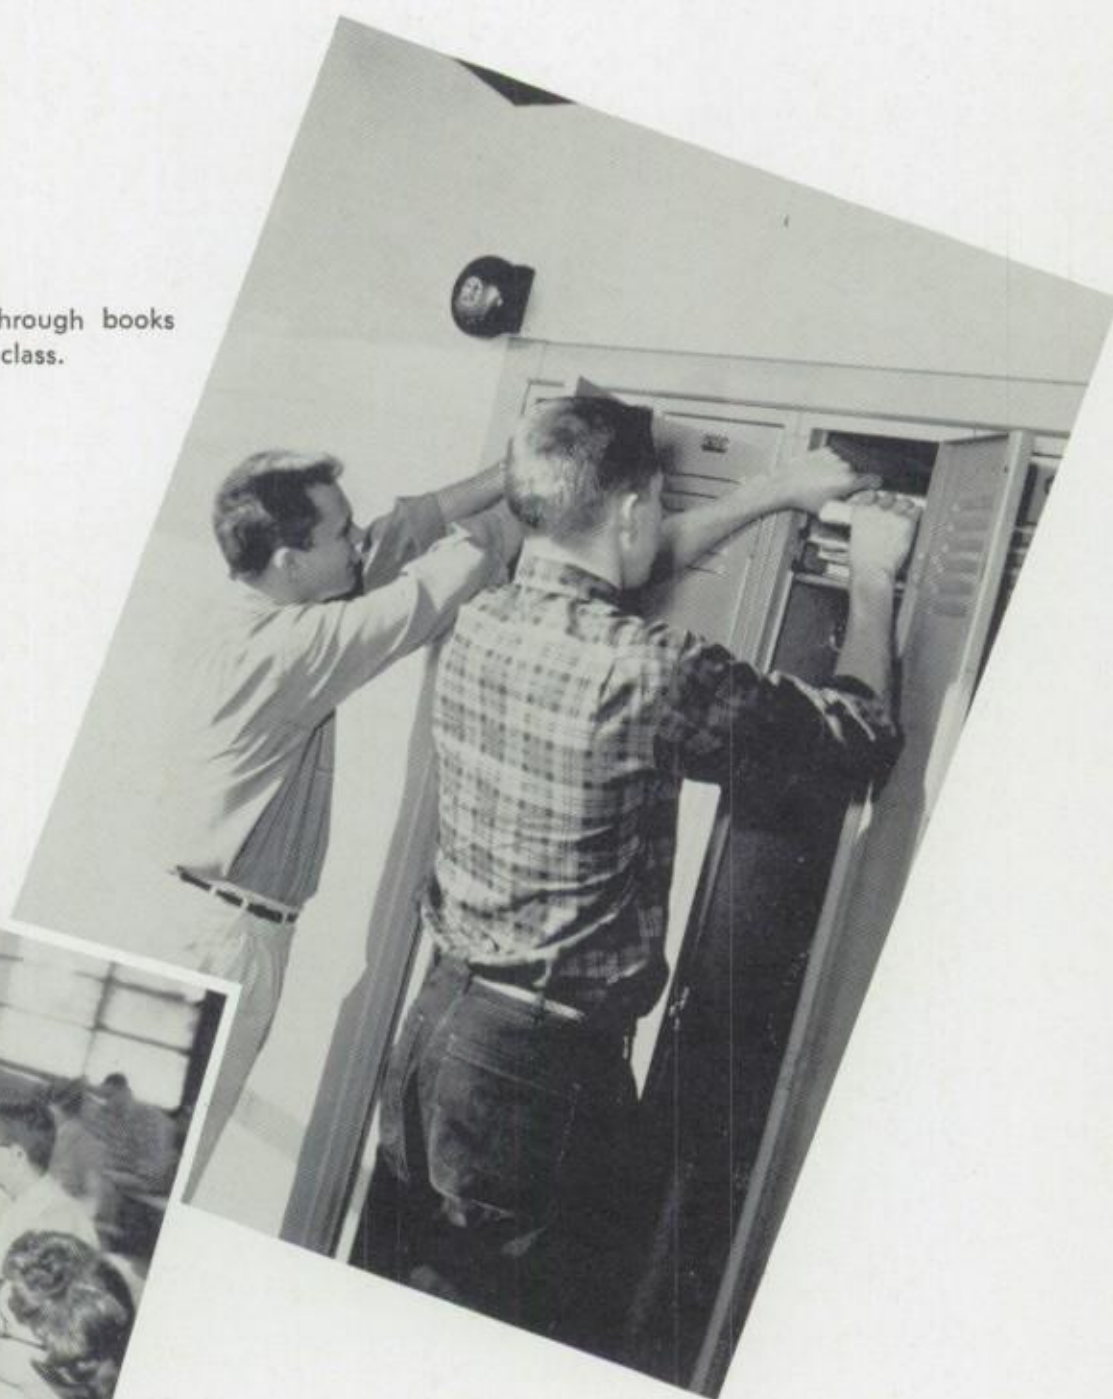

The mad rush to class between bells.

Our library—stacks and stacks of knowledge

Todd Brotemarkle and Tom Bush shuffle through books and papers before leaving for the next class.

Seniors wouldn't cheat on scholarship exams, would they?

WE HAVE A VOICE

Al Gaston and Rog Greene shake hands after hearing the outcome of the election.

Ron Wycoff and Nancy Hokanson vied for the student council vice presidency.

Al Gaston and Ron Wycoff look over their duties as president and vice president of Student Council.

"GASTON, WYCOFF WIN TOP STUDENT POSITIONS" were headlines following the student council elections. After four days of vigorous campaigning, Al Gaston, senior candidate for student council president, and Ron Wycoff, junior vice presidential nominee, gained victory over their opponents Roger Greene, for president, and Nancy Hokanson for veep.

Highpoint in the campaign was a party sponsored by the four candidates for all the campaign workers.

Speeches given in support of the candidates at a convocation helped to bring out a whopping 96 per cent of the student body to the polls.

IN STUDENT AFFAIRS

Winnie Kozy, Marlene Schaaf, Jerry Billings, Barbara Carew, and Bonnie Bishop worked hard??? on Al Gaston's campaign.

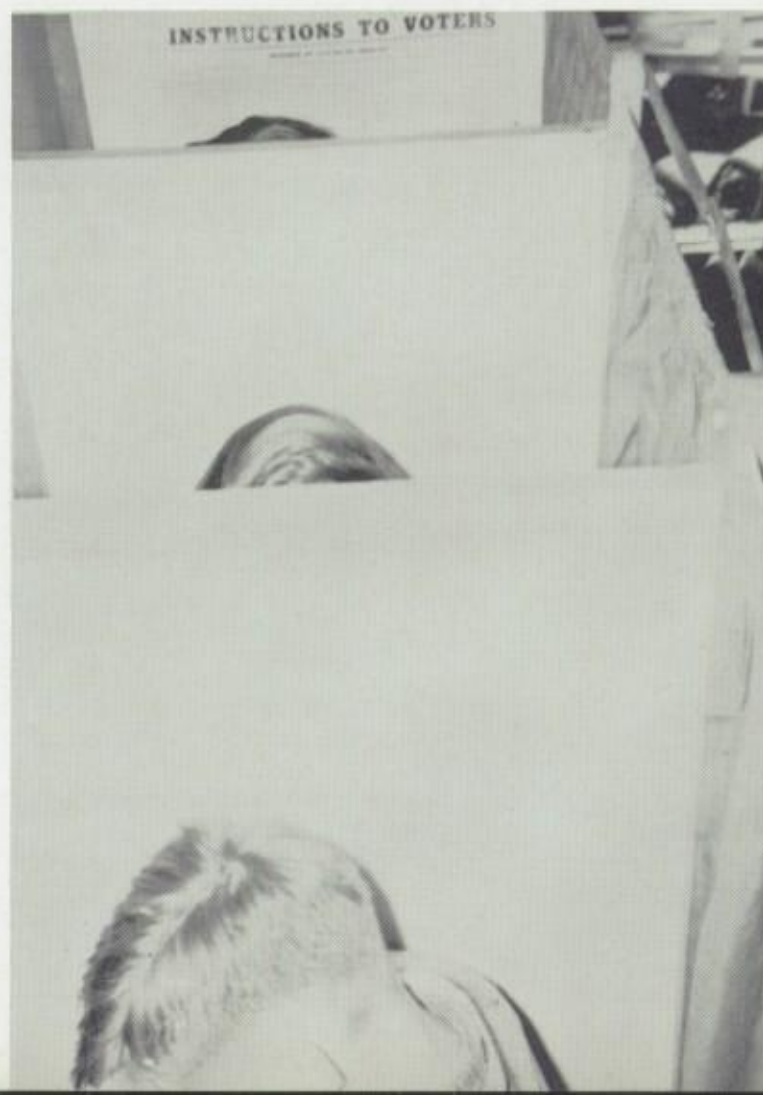

Campaign posters plastered throughout the school were surveyed by Lester Babcock, Dan Zirkel, Judy Shooter, and Judy Anderson.

Susan Brobst, Joe Klaser, Dan Evans, and Judy Quade stand in line before voting.

What's this? Secret ballot?

WE ARE GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO DISPLAY

Frosh Girls, Adele Waugh, Kathy Carmody, Janet Bergquist, Mary Slont, Betty Smith, Susan Davis, Pat Pearson, and Susan

Howard exhibit singing talent and dimpled knees.

"The Four Notes," Judy Brooks, Fran Ely, Judy Schultz, and Barbara Danderson won first place honor in the serious group.

OUR TALENTS

"Que Sera" and "It Is No Secret" were sung by first place winner, Darlene Eastman, eighth grader.

"I'm Just a Girl Who Cain't Say No!" warbled Julie Morgan and Carol Pearson in their slinky red satin dresses.

Breezily emceed by Vern Odom and Sandy Stemp, the 13th annual Opportunity Nite gave the students an opportunity to show their talents and to win a cash prize for their class. Winners from three categories; solo, serious, and comedy were chosen by the audience.

"Don't know what they're doin' but they laugh a lot behind the Green Door," bellowed first place comedy winners; Carol Anderson, Carol Lindstedt, Jeanne Manning, Phyllis Hyde, and Lee Clevenger with Paul Seigh (in his nightie) and Mr. Betz (at the piano).

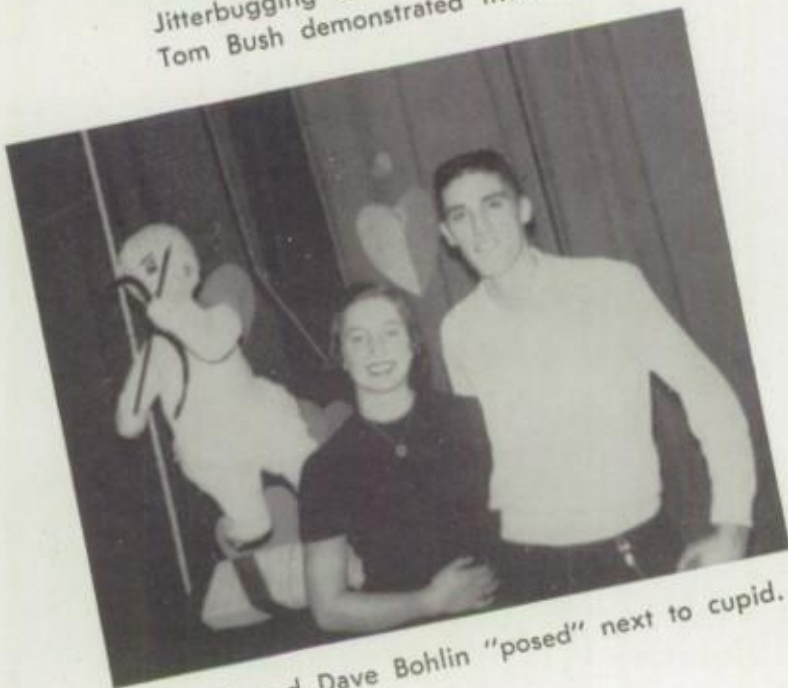

WE GOT INTO THE

Sue Howard and Ed Sievert were presented by Sherman Butler when they won the dance contest at Bandstand Matinee.

Jitterbugging at a sock hop, Gwen Holgrem and Tom Bush demonstrated their dancing talent.

Fran Ely and Dave Bohlin "posed" next to cupid.

"We Could Have Danced All Night"

Nancy Scott and Doug Parsons were chosen "Spotlight Couple" at the Valentine sock hop.

'SWING' OF THINGS

the GAA Christmas dance

Sue Campbell and Ron Reglein "hopped" to the records at the Valentine Dance.

Before Bandstand Matinee, we practiced jitterbugging every noon.

Mr. Betz, is that the "Rock and Roll Waltz?"

WE HAD A "BALL" AT THE

Rock 'n' Roll Waltz

"The Lineup" for the grand march

Overhead at the punch bowl—"Did you say SHE is the best Dancer?"

Y-TEEN FORMAL

Surprised and happy after their selection, Wayne Sovich and Gwen Magnuson reigned as "Stairway to the Stars" couple.

Sharon Horton and Marcia Hyde, pose with their dates, Ed Wozniak and Al Gaston.

When the music start jumping, we'll have a ball!

Surprised and happy after learning about their selection, Bob Hicks, prince; Pat Slont, queen; and Juliet Morgan, princess; reigned throughout the remainder of "Silver Moments."

UPPERCLASSMEN THRILL AT

Couples taking part in the grand march paraded around the illuminated centerpiece.

We could have danced all night.

'SILVER MOMENTS'

Why did it have to end so soon?

Like many others, Carol Pearson, David Bohlin, Maura McNamara, and Roger Greene went to Chicago the day after the prom.

"Who's Gonna Take You to the Prom?" was a hit tune and pressing question confronting the juniors before May 4 last year.

Barker Hall was turned into a field of blue and silver with a boy and girl mannequin standing under a huge illuminated clock as the center decoration.

About 100 couples left for the breakfast at the Golden Sands Restaurant after dancing and dreaming.

Mr. Faye Hall congratulates Carol Anderson after her coronation.

BOOSTERS COMBINE CROWNING OF QUEEN

Miss McKnight gets into the act and applies "grease-paint" to Dr. Hugh Cassidy while John Wilson watches.

1956-57 basketball queen, Carol Anderson and her court reigned at the Boosters' Club Coronation Ball in November. Each class, after choosing a candidate for queen, sold tickets—the girl selling the most tickets winning the coveted title of queen.

Chesterton residents, merchants, faculty, and students participated in the Boosters' Minstrel, staged before the Coronation Ball.

WITH MINSTREL

Coach Evar Edquist crowns Carol Anderson 1957 Basketball Queen while Carol Pearson, Karen Kielsen, and Janet Bergquist reign as her court.

"Shortstuff" Dold kicks up his heels after hearing one of "Digger" Edmond's jokes.

WE ARE HIGH SCHOOL KIDS WITH

We're typical high school kids at CHS—from the tops of our fuzzy angora caps or stubby flat tops to the toes of our saddle shoes. We like to rock "n" roll, jitterbug, or just plain spin those discs. We've twisted the English language around to suit our own meanings, too. To us, something "real hot" is "cool," and when we "dig" something, we don't need a shovel. Our diet of hamburgers, french fries, and cokes may seem impossible, our "cat hats," class rings, and "going steady" hearts foolish, and our ideas of fun impractical—but we wouldn't be normal American kids minus our fads and fancies.

Marles Seifert, and Maxine Erickson are just havin' fun.

Sharon McAvoy, Sandra Szostek, and Linda Shepard model fuzzy angora caps—the rage among the girls.

Loafers, bucks, saddles, suedes, et cetera

Twin fashions for twosomes were popular with steadies such as JoAnn Church and Dick Crum.

OUR TYPICAL FADS AND FANCIES

The long and the short of it. Both Marietta Quigley and Sherry Ivey wore popular hairstyles.

Get with it, man! Dale Wheeler, Fred Rowley and Bob Hite had real gone hairstyles.

Collars and sweaters are modeled by Sue Jensen and Sally Holm.

"Hey, you guys, wanna rod out to the drag strip?"

Real cool! Dick Burton, Bill Robertson, and Roger Hewitt wear their "cat hats."

ORGANIZATIONS

The most fun was working and laughing with our friends.

Barbara Carew, GAA president, announces Bob Hicks to be the GAA Pin-Up Boy of 1957 at the GAA Christmas dance.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

First row: Karen Hiser, Rhonda Henninger, Carol Kaufman, Carol Jersey, Karen Taylor, Betty Smith, Gail Dunn, Janet Bergquist, Frances Higgins, Judy Ciulewicz, Judy Zaborowski, Julie Daily, Amanda Brown, Judy Kara, Sharon Hamilton, Carol Michiaels, Judy Meyne, Darlene Johnson, Marlene McMeans, Frances Hollett, Patty Leigh, Molliejean Peterson. Second row: Mrs. Virginia Bateman, Mary Miller, Kay McCorkel, Betty Bishop, Sharon White, Lucille Chester, Marcia Spencer, Ellen McGroarty, Susan Brobst, Joan Logan, Cassy Jo Miller, Sharon Carlyle, Mary Slont, Donna Dawson, Jean Coombs, Arlene Peterson, Marijo Dale, Nancy Bowdish, Pat Burnside, Mimi Pape, Carolyn Dille,

Junior Y-Teen Officers: Judy Tavernier, Treasurer; Carol Michiaels, Publicity Chairman; Carol Jersey, President; Pat Burnside, Vice President; Maxine Erickson, Secretary.

"Potato chips galore" chanted members of Junior Y-Teens as they conducted their potato chip sale in December. Under the guidance of their officers, the Y-Teens netted about $100 from the sale which was used for various worthy projects.

They were co-sponsors with Senior Y-Teens in giving Thanksgiving baskets, Christmas gifts for welfare, an installation banquet, and a Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Mrs. Virginia Bateman, Mrs. Julia Kovalow, and Miss Betty Lou McKnight sponsored this freshman-sophomore group.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

First row: Mrs. Winifred Weidman, Sharon DeMass, Mary Wucsko, Judy Schultz, Joan Holm, Maura McNamara, Carol Pearson, Sandy Stemp, Louise Royko, Marcia Hyde, Marlene Schaaf, Darlene Swisher, Sharon Horton, Jane Baird, Miss Leona Burrus. Second row: Sheila Mitchell, Audrey Bielawski, Julie Morgan, Vernalee Hegburg, Sue Jones, Sherry Ivey, JoAnn Church, Bonnie Bishop, Jeri Hofman, Mickey Koritz, Nancy Scott, Rochelle Hewitt, Kathy Hybert, Sally Sohlberg, Pat Sofrons, Susan Johnson, Gail Howes, Joan Wilding. Third row: Sally Kashak, Fran Ely, Marty

DeHaven, Joan Rietesel, Carol Lipinski, Barbara Carew, Delores McMeans, Winnie Kozy, Sally Holm, Judy Shooter, Barbara Danderson, Pat Connors, Elaine Smedman, Carol Anderson, Bonnie Meneilly, Janet Schellinger, Brenda Meyers. Fourth row: Lova Charlson, Gwen Magnuson, Judy Brooks, Sue Jensen, Emily Fornshell, Vernetta Blakely, Sandy Hass, Ginny Hammond, Arlene Erickson, Margo Miller, Karen Groff, Kay West, Judy Haas, Sandy Nelson, Carol Lindstedt, Nancy Hokanson, Sharon Hलगren, Lee Clevenger, Phyllis Hyde.

Senior Y-Teens is a branch of the YWCA and functions as a service organization.

Distributing Thanksgiving baskets to needy families, donating Christmas gifts to welfare, and sponsoring a Sadie Hawkins Dance, a fall formal, "Stairway to the Stars," and an installation banquet kept Y-Teen officers and members busy. Other activities were swimming parties, bake sales, and a candy sale.

Any junior or senior girl could join this group sponsored by Miss Leona Burrus and Mr. Winifred Weidman.

Senior Y-Teen officers: Marcia Hyde, Chaplain; Sharon DeMass, President; Sandra Hass, Vice President; Rochell Hewitt, Secretary; Sharon Horton, Treasurer; Nancy Hokanson, Historian.

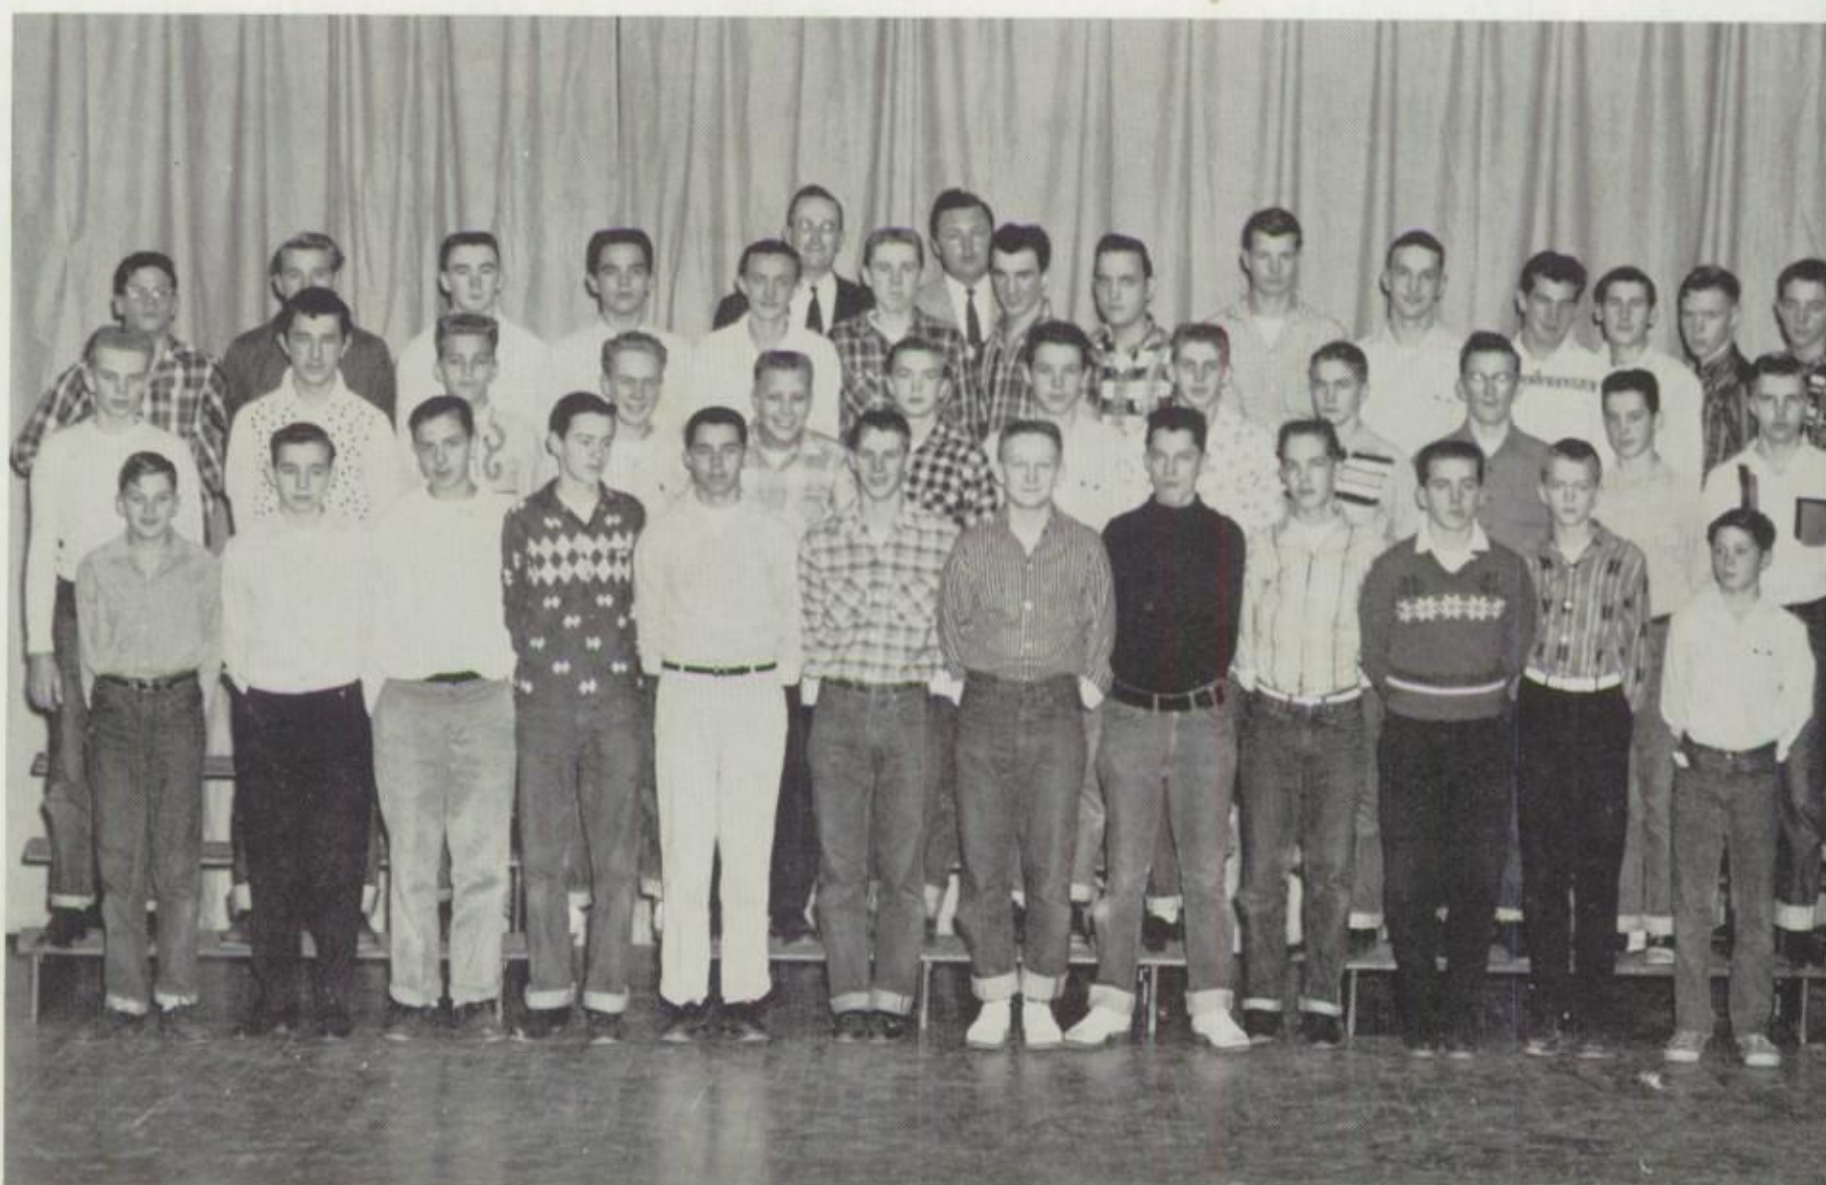

Junior Hi-Y Officers: Jerry Meyne, Vice President; Bob Didelot, President; Rudy Van Loon, Secretary; Kerry Lytle, Treasurer; Jim Kozy, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Junior Hi-Y, a branch of the YMCA, is a Christian organization made up of freshman and sophomore boys wishing to further high standards of Christian character.

Sponsors, Mr. John Brunton and Mr. Elwood Mull, helped the boys in planning their calendar for the year. Activities included several trips to the Y swimming pool in Valpo, and the start of Junior Hi-Y bowling teams.

SENIOR HI-Y

"Driving" through the year with a scrap drive, a clothing drive, and a candy sale ("World's Finest Chocolate") the Senior Hi-Y made enough money to buy two television sets for the school. TV brought in outside events that couldn't be seen otherwise.

Movies shown as part of the program at meetings, swimming at the Y in Valpo, and a spring dance were other activities.

Mr. Joseph Koss and Mr. Cyral Turner sponsored the group of junior and senior boys.

SPOTLIGHTERS

Sitting: Amanda Brown, Vice President. Standing: John Wilson, Secretary; Allan Wiedel, President; Fritz Kilbourn, Treasurer.

"Fireman, Save My Child," a one act melodrama, highlighted the year for Spotlighters.

Composed of freshmen and sophomores interested in acting, the "budding talent" met periodically to discuss different phases of dramatics.

Sponsored by Mr David Pogue and Mrs. Virginia Bateman, the "hams" were led by Allan Wiedel, president; Amanda Brown, vice president; Fritz Kilbourn, treasurer; and John Wilson, secretary.

First row: Ken Haughee, John Wilson, Fritz Kilbourn, Wayne Henry, Richard Silverthorn, Allan Wiedel. Second row: Karen Rudolf, Carol Andershock, Amanda Brown, Kay Crampton,

DRAMATICS

"Come on, ham it up," shouted Sandy Stemp, Junior-Senior Dramatics president, to the players in "REHEARSAL." A skit, such as REHEARSAL, was given at each meeting by several members. All activities having to do with dramatics count as points toward becoming members of Thespians.

Activities for Junior-Senior Dramatics included the presentation of tableaux at the Christmas Vespers and convocation.

Sponsoring the group were Miss Betty Perkins and Mrs. Julia Kovalow. Mrs. Kovalow was replaced by Miss Betty Lou McKnight second semester.

Sitting: Ed Tilden, Treasurer. Standing: Judy Van Loon, Vice president; Sandy Stemp, president; Sue Jones, Secretary.

Hofman, Nancy Scott, Lova Charlson, Delores McMeans, Bonnie Bishop, Winnie Kozy, Kay West, Kathleen McCooles, Rochelle Hewitt, Margo Miller. Fifth row: Sherry Ivey, Gwen Magnuson, Judy Schultz, Barbara Danderson, Mickey Koritz, Sharon Halgren, Violet Larson, Mary Wucsko, Karen Groff. Sixth row: Audrey Bielawski, Marilyn Carlson, Nancy Hacker, Donna Clark, Evann Lorenz, Diane Melling, Carol Reiter, Mrs. Mary Dold.

SENIOR "MADEMOISELLES"

"Oui Mademoiselles," thought the Frenchman as he watched a group of CHS Senior Girls pass by. Little did he realize that "Mademoiselles" was the name chosen for the Senior Girls' Club.

Mainly a social organization to which any senior girl is eligible for membership, meetings were held once a month at one of the girl's houses.

Mrs. Mary Dold, sponsor, guided the members and officers in deciding which philanthropic charities.

"Mademoiselle" officers, Sally Holm, vice president; Sue Jensen, president, and Joan Rietesel, secretary-treasurer show off their gifts after the Christmas exchange.

An attentive audience, a group of Senior Girls scrutinize the game of jacks.

SCIENCE CLUB

After much work and planning by the members and sponsors, Mr. Henry Looft, Mr. Cyral Turner, and Mr. Ray Edman, the Goldsborough Science Workshop was completed. It is used by the science department as a greenhouse and as a building to work on projects.

A trip to the Sci-Math Assembly at Purdue University was taken by the student "scientists." Several sock hops and the Fifth Annual Botany Banquet were sponsored to raise money. Science Demonstrations by the physics and chemistry classes and well-known speakers in the Chicago area were featured at several meetings.

Science Club Officers: Juliet Morgan, President; Larry Lauger, Treasurer; Sue Jensen, Secretary; Fran Ely, Vice President.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Sitting: John Dresh, Roger Greene, Jo Wallace, Al Gaston, Ron Wycoff, John Wilson. Standing: Tim Bagby, Denny Dille, Mr.

Munro, Bob Hicks. Not present for picture: Paul Seigh.

CLASS PRESIDENTS

BOB HICKS, Senior
DENNY DILLIE, Junior
JOHN DRESH, Freshman

AL GASTON, President
RON WYCOFF, Vice President

CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

ROGER GREENE, Senior
PAUL SEIGH, Junior
JO ANN WALLACE, Sophomore
TIM BAGBY, Freshman

Providing a form of self government and promoting the interests of the school, the Student Council met regularly every two weeks to discuss and solve problems relating to school life.

The Student Council sponsored the intramural control boards, chose the intercom announcers, and made regular locker inspections. Several joint meeting with the Portage High School student council promoted relations between the two schools. The "law-makers" also planned the pictures and layout of CSH activities for a picture page in the Michigan City News Dispatch.

Old Members—First row: Juliet Morgan, Carol Pearson, Miss Sayers, Fran Ely, Carol Reiter. Second row: Dave Bohlin, Al Gaston.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service are the four requirements for membership in the National Honor Society.

In its 11th year at Chesterton High School, the society has new standards for qualifications. Juniors and seniors who have maintained a "B" average are eligible for membership. The faculty elects five per cent of the juniors and 15 per cent of the senior class to the society. Seniors previously elected to the society are known as the "old" members, and with Miss Lillian Sayers, sponsor of the organization, conduct the initiation ceremony in the spring for the "new" members.

New Members—First row: Ron Wycoff, Judy Stephens, Miss Sayers, Diane Melling, Phil Brockington. Second row: Marcia Hyde, Mickey Koritz, Nancy Hokanson, Sandy Hass, Ron Reglein, Jerry Goldstine, Wendell Carlson, Roger Greene, Sue Jensen, Sally Holm, Carol Lipinski, Alice Boo.

OFFICE MONITORS

Carol Lindstedt, Sandra Nelson, Nancy Holm, Sharon DeMass, Joan Rietesel, Arlene Ericson, Donna Perez, Sue Jones, Judy

Brooks, Bonnie Bishop, Marcia Hyde, Joan Wilding, Karen Groff, Alice Boo, Joy Peer.

Office monitors forfeit one of their study halls to help the school secretary in collecting absent slips from each class, posting the daily attendance sheet, and, in general, assisting with the work done in the office. Two office monitors are on duty each period.

"May I have your attention please? May I have your attention please?" Somehow, no third or fifth period seemed complete unless these words were repeated over the intercom by an unseen voice. The duties of this unseen voice were carried out by five junior and five seniors who served on alternating weeks.

Susan Johnson, Richard Studtmann, Fran Ely, Carol Rieter, Jeanne Manning, Carol Pearson, Sally Holm, Judy Schultz, Vern

Odom, Julie Morgan.

INTER-COM ANNOUNCERS

First row: Carolyn Wood, Richard Silverthorn, Duane Clouse, Warren Highwood, Alice Sweitzer, Rhonda Henninger. Second

LIBRARY CLUB

Members of the Library Club are student librarians interested in the organization, administration, and condition of the school library and books. Each year they send at least two representatives to Student Librarians Work Shop at Indiana University.

Student librarians assist Miss Leona Burrus, sponsor and librarian, by checking out books, returning books to the shelves, keeping records, and planning library displays.

Officers: Pat Connors, Secretary; Barb Danderson, Treasurer; Sheila Mitchell, Publicity Chairman; Rhonda Henninger, Vice President; Sandra Bishop, President.

First row: Bob Saylor, Ron Pearson, Bob Lawson, Leroy Wahl, Dale Crull, Joannette Brown, Carol Parker, Quintin Dillenger, Larry Kilander, Leland Peterson. Second row: Jerry Bucksbarg,

PROJECTOR'S AND CAMERA CLUB

First row: Bob Lawson, Carl Randler, Jerry Bucksbarg, Mr. Ponader. Second row: Carroll Kara, Dennis Hood, Marvin Kohler,

CHESTERTON HIGH SCHOOL ART DEPARTMENT

BAND

Under the direction of the tall, dark, and handsome Mr. Nick Paolisso, the Senior Band participated in the East-West Parade, the Porter County Music Festival, Christmas Vespers, the Solo and Ensemble Contest, State Band Contest, Commencement, and three concerts.

Besides the main band; dance, pep, and dixieland bands were formed. The Dixieland Band ripped the roof from

Peterson, Ray Crampton, Bruce Davison, Vernon Hegberg, John Holden, Elaine Michaels, Leonard Griswold, George Maney, Jim McDougal, Virginia Hammond, Sue Jensen, Mr. Paolisso.

Boucher Gym when they played for the Porter County Music Festival.

Boosting the Trojans, the Pep Band displayed talent at sessions and games.

Denny Dille, president; Sue Jensen, vice president; Mickey Koritz, secretary; Virginia Hammond, treasurer; and John Kleberg, manager; were the officers elected by the band members.

JUNIOR CHORUS

Members of the Junior Chorus are freshman and sophomore students wishing to join Senior Chorus. This year of work enables them to obtain poise, grace, and musical comprehension, which is needed to establish a bigger and better chorus.

The Junior Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Loren Betz, practices three times a week—their goal is to gain the experience necessary to become one of the Senior Chorus members.

Junior Chorus Officers: Mary Slont, President; Kathy Carmody, Vice President; Joyce Lanahan, Secretary-Treasurer.

SENIOR CHORUS

First row: Phyllis Hyde, Darlene Swisher, Carol DeSarro, Carol Andershock, Carol Evensen, Sally Sohlberg, Maxine Erickson, Wayne Sovich, Darrell Wisemann, John Dresh, Jack Baird, Mr. Loren Betz, John Wilson, Wally Oke, Sharon Halgren, Lova Charlson, Marietta Quigley, Rochelle Hewitt, Carolyn Kaufman, Susan Brobst, Jeanne Manning, Brenda Meyers. Second row: Sharon DeMass, Kathy Hybert, Judy Schultz, Ellen McBroarty, Delores Lawson, Melanie Yagelski, Don Lee, Larry Kilander, Ed Seifert, John Pearson, Darrell Hood, Jim Walk, Shelia Mitchell, Judy Anderson, Lucille Chester, Sandra Dawson, Viola Hyde,

Under the direction of Mr. Loren Betz, the chorus took part in the Thanksgiving Day Convocation, the Porter County Music Festival, the Christmas Convocation, Vespers, and Baccalaureate. New risers were purchased because no step ladder could be found tall enough for our "little" director. The Winter and Spring Concerts were highlights of the year's activities.

Senior Chorus Officers: Johnny Wilson, Secretary - Treasurer; Brenda Meyers, Vice President; Wendell Carlson, President.

Mr. Shields, sponsor, and Carol Pearson, editor, make big plans for the 1957 Singing Sands.

"Bleeding in the gutter, workin' on the rim. Losin' all our sleep and losing all our vim."

Typical of the plight of the "investigating" yearbook staff, these words were the theme song before each deadline. Selecting the theme, laying out the dummy, rewriting copy, and cropping pictures meant hectic days and sleepless nights for everyone on the staff. As the book took shape, spirit lagged and pressure mounted—but somehow every deadline was met—within minutes.

HUSTLING AND INVESTIGATING SINGING

Placid and calm, the newly chosen annual staff; Carol Reiter, Joan Holm, Ed Tilden, Joan Rietesel, Sue Jensen, Bob Hicks, Carol Pearson, Mr. Shields, Julie Morgan, Roger Greene, Sally

Holm, Carol Lipinski, Tom Bush, Maura McNamara, and Marlene Schaaf recline on the lawn in front of the school, looking at yearbooks.

SANDS STAFF GETS THE REAL "LOWDOWN"

"Eeek! The staff's gone crazy!" Screaming and yelling, the flustered "detectives," Carol Pearson, Mr. Shields, Ed Tilden, Tom Bush, Carol Lipinski, Carol Reiter, Roger Greene, Marlene Schaaf, Maura McNamara, Sally Holm, Gail Sherwood, Joan Holm, Joan Reitsel, Juliet Morgan, and Sue Jensen tore their hair before each deadline.

SCOOP

"YOU can be replaced!"

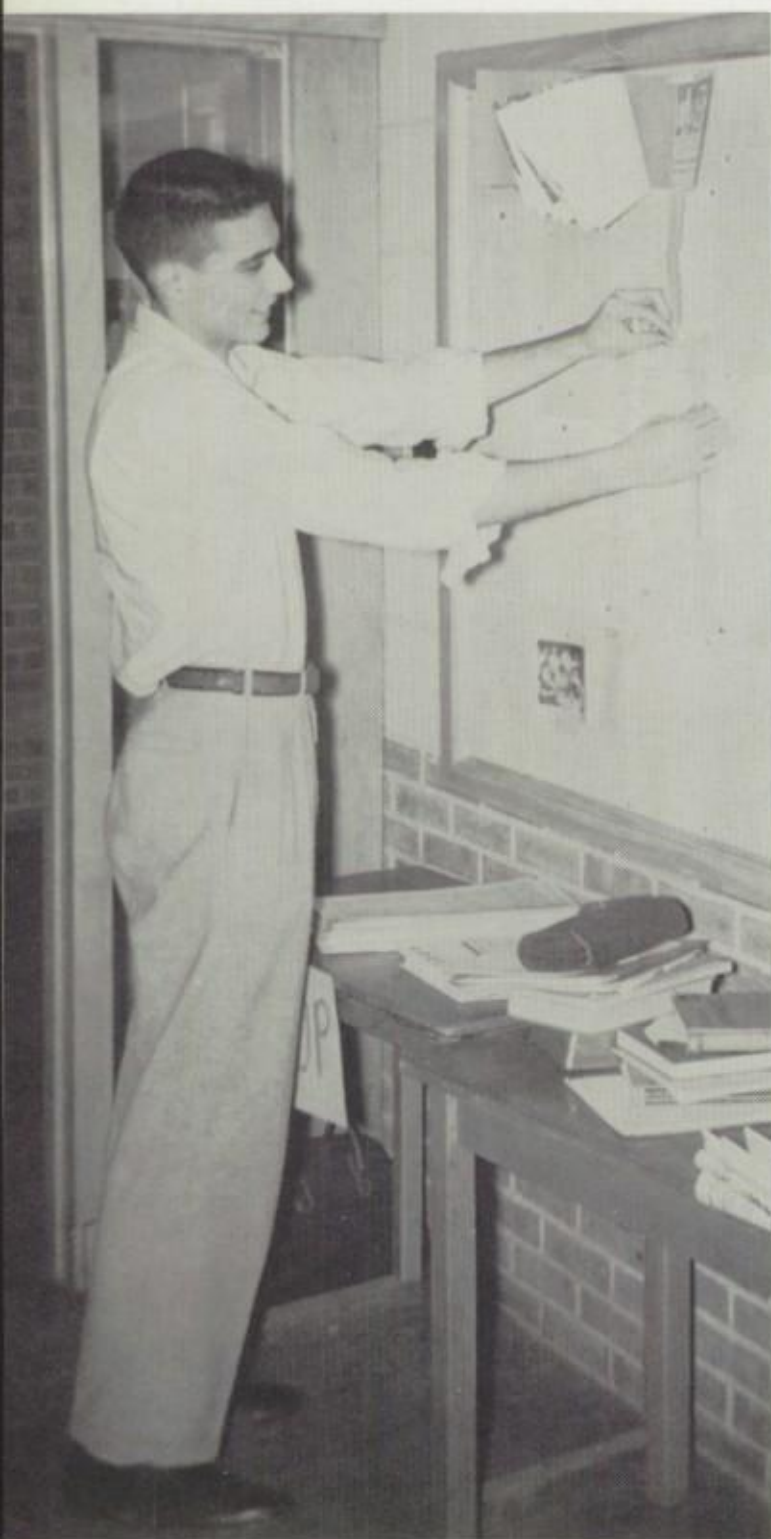

"Those stories were supposed to be in last night!"

"Fur's gonna fly tomorrow!"

Thus Dave Bohlin, editor of Scoop, ranted and raved as the Thursday noon deadline dangerously approached. However, with the help of Mrs. Mary Dodd, sponsor, ads were stenciled, copy "dummied," headlines written, stencils cut, and finally, the weekly eight-page paper was madly stapled together.

Joann Church and Marlene Schaaf type stencils while head-

Dave Bohlin, editor, posts the assignments Thursday afternoon.

Julie Morgan, Jeanne Manning, and Marcia Hyde copyread their stories.

Recognized as one of the outstanding mimeographed papers in Indiana, the Scoop staff outdid themselves when an 18 page Christmas spectacular and a real gone April Fool issue were published.

Eleven members of the staff journeyed to the Indiana High School Press Association Convention at Franklin. For the first time, CHS ran a candidate for office—Nancy Hokanson for president of IHSPA.

Busy, busy staff, as the deadline draws nigh.

"When a GAA girl walks down the street, she looks a hundred per from head to feet." These are the opening lines of the GAA theme song acquired as a result of joining the ILHSGAA, the state GAA organization.

Highlight of the GAA calendar was "Silver Bells," the Christmas dance at which Bob Hicks reigned as "GAA Pin-Up Boy."

Other GAA activities were sponsoring a group to Bandstand Matinee and a variety show.

BOOSTERS

"Give us the maroon, maroon, maroon—give us the gold, the gold, the gold," chanted enthusiastic boosters at both the Sectionals and the Porter County Tourney. Clad in maroon vests and gold and maroon gloves, the Trojan boosters were presented the Porter County Cheering Award for the fifth consecutive year.

Chesterton's feature at the Porter County Tourney was Trojan Dale Wheeler, resplendent in maroon cape, gold tunic, and plumed helmet, riding onto the basketball floor in a chariot drawn by a white horse; that is, Ed Mohnssen and Tony Sitar dressed in a horse costume.

Sponsored by Mr. Faye Hall, the Boosters began the year with a street dance in October. Merchants, faculty, and students cooperated to stage the second annual Boosters' Minstrel followed by a "Coronation Dance."

SPORTS

Briefly, we love 'em!

Jerry Humphrey, Eldie Parker, Bob Hicks, and Ed Tilden are senior representatives of the main sports offered at CHS.

Leading hitters were Bob Didelot, Ron Wycoff, Eldie Parker, Dennie Dille, Fred Mitchell.

Al Gaston pulls in another one.

Eldie Parker gives a few pointers to the other Senior members; Al Gaston, Don Darling, Bob Conklin, Phil Arvin, Bob Hicks.

CHAMPS UNDEFEATED

Undeclared—all the way! The CHS Trojan Nine won the Porter County Championship with a record of 8-0. Eldon Parker pitched a no-hitter against Liberty and allowed only two runs scored on him during the year. Other players that saw a lot of action were Fred Mitchell, Bob Didelot, Ron Wycoff, Dennie Dille, Phil Arvin, Al Gaston, Bob Conklin, and Ollie Dille.

some lost—
but all are met with the smile of champions
in BASKETBALL

Chesterton's mighty Trojans finished a "just-average" season with 11 wins and 11 losses.

In the opener with Crown Point, the Men of Troy were dropped by two points in an exciting overtime. The Porter County Tourney, again a hope for victory, found CHS face to face with the Portage Indians in the final game. Portage's ball club proved too much for the Trojans, smashing hopes for a three year County Tourney winning streak.

CHS played rougher competition when Gary Edison and Griffith were added to the schedule, dropping LaCrosse and Liberty. The Trojans faced other new teams when they took their first crack at the Rensselaer Holiday Tourney. Calumet Township nudged the Maroon and Gold out in the final game of the tourney to take the championship.

Coach Edquist's "Men of Troy" sank a total of 523 buckets and 345 charity tosses out of the 22 games played.

CHEERLEADERS

"Are you rootin' for the boys?" Three nights a week similar refrains rang through the halls as the eight cheerleaders practiced yells. Chosen annually by the student body, the cheering squad consists of two girls from each class. With Mr. Faye Hall, sponsor, the cheerleaders, designed their uniforms—gold corduroy skirts, white sweaters, and gold collars.

The spirit and energy displayed by the yell leaders has made it possible for CHS to win six cheering trophies in seven years.

"Wow! Dig those crazy knees!" commented an observing booster when the cheerleaders appeared in sweaters and bermuda shorts. For the first time, they had special "outfits" to wear at pep sessions.

Nancy Goodlin, Brenda Meyers, Fran Hollet, Phyllis Hyde, Kathy Carmody, Martha DeHaven, and Mary Slont convince us that bermuda shorts are really the "most."

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

Although athletics for boys usually make the headlines, a well-rounded program is also offered CHS girls.

Continuing the practice adopted last year, girls interested in noontime intramurals were drawn in at random instead of the organization of individual class teams.

Coming out on top in the round robin with a 7-1 record, the "Blue" gals also took the single elimination tournament, beating Brown in the final game.

BOYS' INTRAMURALS

Aside from the health and physical standpoints, the aim of the boys' intramural program is the participation of the maximum number of players.

Boys not on the varsity squad may participate in noontime intramurals. Coached by members of the varsity, the flashily-dressed teams play in round robin style and in a single elimination tournament.

White and Black tied for the lead at the end of round robin play—White winning the play-off. Winner of the tournament was Black.

ADMINISTRATION

Three new teachers were added to the faculty in the fall; Mr. Charles Allegree, Mrs. Virginia Bateman, and Miss Norma Park. Four former teachers returned; Mr. Loren Betz, who took the new position of assistant principal, Mrs. Janet Davis, Mrs. Pauline Johnson, and Mrs. Eleanor Murry. Mrs. Ruth Wahl returned to her former position as office secretary when Mrs. Arlene Peterson resigned to move to California.

Other substitutions were made in the faculty when Mrs. Julia Kovalow, who expected a baby early in March, was replaced by Miss Betty Lou McKnight, and when Mrs. Elna Vickers took Miss McKnight's classes. Mr. Thomas Sergeant replaced Mr. Gerald Hundt after he was seriously injured in a collision.

CLASS OFFICERS: Alice Boo, Ed Tilden, Roger Greene, Bob Hicks, Jerry Goldstine.

SENIORS

Here it was—our last year! Eagerly anticipating all that lay ahead of us, we elected Bob Hicks, president; Jerry Goldstine, vice president; Alice Boo, secretary; Ed Tilden, treasurer; and Roger Greene, student council representative.

Al Gaston was elected student council president over Roger Greene after a short, but hard-working campaign.

"Puppy Love" was the theme of the Fall Fiesta. Trimming St. Patrick's Hall with real "doggy" decorations and making bids with stuffed puppies attached kept us busy.

Judy Brooks, Barbara Danderson, Fran Ely, and Judy Schultz placed first in Opportunity Night with their quartet "The Four Notes," while Roger Greene, pianist, took second place. Carol Pearson and Juliet Morgan also represented the seniors with their act, "I'm Just a Girl Who Can't Say No."

Rushing to meet Singing Sands deadlines, working on outside reading reports for Mr. Munro, and practicing long hours on the Senior Play we learned to cooperate and to take responsibility.

As the prom, Senior Day, Baccalaureate, and Commencement drew nearer, we realized that our final year at CHS was drawing to a swift close.

Advising and helping us in our activities were Mrs. Janet Davis, Mrs. Mary Dold, Mr. Warren Munro, and Mr. Cyral Turner.

Graduating seniors:

You have reached the pinnacle of one of your most important goals in life. Having reached that pinnacle and now having had some short time to survey the situation, you find it is not quite like you had expected. It is for the most part a happy time, but mingled with that happiness are also some regrets. You had probably thought that this moment would bring big opportunities, but now you realize that you have been living with big opportunities daily and had failed to recognize many of them. You had expected graduation to be the answer to life's problems, but now you find that life still presents its problems.

These mixed emotions which may seem a little confusing and even somewhat frustrating are only part of the broadening cultural background that you have been gaining for yourself and if properly used will help you in the future to make wise choices and decisions of good judgment for your personal welfare and for the general welfare of your community.

I, as your principal, join with all of your teachers in sincere congratulations to you and assure you that we have had much personal satisfaction in having had some part in your attainment. We hope that your future will bring much of the personal gratification that you have experienced in your school life, especially during your 1957 graduating week.

Respectfully,
Elmer D. Dunbar

CLASS OFFICERS: Leonard Jersey, Paul Seigh, Brenda Meyers, Nancy Hokanson, Denny Dille.

Oh, to be an upperclassman! New responsibilities were placed on our shoulders, but we handled them well.

Denny Dille, president; Nancy Hokanson, vice president; Brenda Meyers, secretary; Leonard Jersey, treasurer, and Paul Seigh, student council representative, led us in our efforts to raise money for the prom. Selling magazines and popcorn were a few of the projects we undertook.

Jeanne Manning, Phyllis Hyde, Carol Lindstedt, Lee Clevenger, Carol Anderson, and Paul Seigh participated in "Screen Door," an Opportunity Night skit which won first place. Other junior acts were a piano solo by Judy Van Loon and "The Flat Tops," made up of Walter Oke, Dan Gould, Dennis Dille, and Bruce Davison.

Then the big event arrived—the PROM! We could hardly believe that the day we had planned and worked for so long had come . . . and gone.

Our sponsors, Mr. John Brunton, Miss Leona Burrus, Miss Betty Perkins, and Mr. Ralph Shields, assisted us in our projects.

SOPHOMORES

No longer mystified by high school life, we quickly got back into the swing by electing John Wilson, president; Rudy Van Loon, vice president; Carol Jersey, secretary; Karen Taylor, treasurer; and JoAnn Wallace, student council representative.

Marcia Oddi performed a magician act for Opportunity Night, while Pat Burnside and Susan Drozda did a comedy skit called "Patience and Exasperation."

Under the guidance of our sponsors, Mr. Ray Edman, Mr. Thomas Lauerman, Mrs. Julia Kovalow, Mr. David Pogue, and Mr. Carman Ponader, we planned the Freshman-Sophomore reception as a "get acquainted" party.

Next year we will be upperclassmen—two more wonderful years lie ahead.

FRESHMEN

Puzzled by high school life at first, we soon "gathered the facts" from older schoolmates. We learned to love the 3:10 bell, the bus rides to basketball games, the long talks in front of lockers . . . We had fun at the Freshman-Sophomore reception, too.

John Dresh, president; George Maney, vice president; Susan Howard, secretary; Pat Pearson, treasurer; and Tim Bagby, student council representative, were elected to lead us in our first year.

John Dresh, Tim Bagby, Ream Lazaro, and Allen Hankosky were in "Impatience and Imprudence," a comedy skit that took second place in Opportunity Night. Janet Bergquist, Kathy Carmody, Sue Davis, Sue Howard, Pat Pearson, Mary Slont, Betty Smith, and Adele Waugh won second place with their "Harmonette" singing, and Bonnie Dillon, soloist, also took part.

The class officers planned one other party with the aid of our sponsors, Mr. Elwood Mull, Mr. Charles Allegree, Mrs. Winifred Weidman, Mr. Henry Looft, Mrs. Virginia Bateman, and Mr. Evar Edquist.

EIGHTH GRADE

"Do not fear! Vote for Tavernier!" "Vote for Pauline or you'll be a sardine!" Catchy slogans gave evidence of the eighth graders' enthusiasm in electing officers. Pamela Tavernier was selected as president; Diane Sabinske, vice president; Pauline Williams, secretary; and Barbara Chester, treasurer.

Darlene Eastman, soloist, won first place in Opportunity Night. Other acts were a duet by John Harrigan and Leslie Johnson, who won second place; and an accordionist, Charlotte Conn.

Sponsors, Mrs. Pauline Johnson, Miss Betty McKnight, Mr. Arthur Rhoades, and Mr. Alfred Smith, helped plan a dance for all eighth graders.

CLASS OFFICERS: Jim Hall, Penny Brown, Donna Bender, Cheryl Fornshell.

SEVENTH GRADE

The class of '62, after examining their new surroundings, started with a rousing campaign for class officer nominees. Penny Brown, president; Jim Hall, vice president; Cheryl Fornshell, secretary, and Donna Bender, treasurer, were chosen to head their class.

Kathy Kelly, a baton twirler; Joel Bassett, pianist; and "Capital Ship," a quartet made up of Penny Brown, Georgia Mickey, Chris Prange, and Ann Pearson were seventh grade Opportunity Night acts.

With the sponsors, Mr. Faye Hall, Mr. Gerald Hundt, Miss Norma Park, and Mr. Mack Goines, the officers planned a class party in the spring and a trip to one of Chicago's museums.
